October 1st, 1913.

Messrs. C. F. Libbie & Company,
597 Washington Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Sirs:-

I have been informed that you expect to hold a sale of books on the 8th and 9th of October, and that in that sale are a couple of lots of medals. If you could conveniently send me a catalogue, I would be greatly obliged.

Very truly yours,

Director.

Boston, Mass.

Dear Sirs:-

I am informed that you have purchased the numismatic library of Mr. Trowbridge, of Worcester. If you have made a list of these books, or contemplate selling them at auction in the future, may I ask that you kindly send me a copy of such list or catalogue.

Yours very truly,

Secretary and Librarian.

Dear Sirs:

Your catalogue of the Masonic books is at hand. I do not find in this list Marvin's "Masonic Medals"; this was issued in a limited edition. If you have a copy, may I ask you to quote price?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir. We do not have a copy of Marini's Masonic Medals and you will probably have a difficult time trying to locate one. We will bear you in mind if we see a copy.

Yours truly
